On June 11, 2016 I will be walking or running in the Think Differently Dash in Poughkeepsie, NY. I will have fun.

I will have my own special number to wear on my shirt. It will look like this.

When I arrive I will go to the registration table to sign in, pick up my number and a special tee shirt. I do not have to wear the shirt if I do not want to but it is mine to keep.

After I sign in I will go to the start line. Someone will be holding a large white sign with blue letters that says START. It will be very crowded and I will have to wait.

START

When the race is ready to begin someone will count down; 10,9,8,7,6,5,4,3,2,1 then I can begin to run or walk.

10, 9, 8, 7, 6,
5, 4, 3, 2, 1

I will run or walk 1 mile up and down the same street. There will be a lot of people in the race; some will be running and some will be walking.

Along the street there will be lots of people cheering and clapping for us. I will see people I know and some people I do not know. Everyone will be happy to watch us.

If I need help there will be volunteers along the way. They will be wearing bright blue tee shirts that look like this.

When I get to the finish line someone will be waving a black and white checkered flag and I will run through a big blue archway. It will look like this.

At the finish line there will be fruit and water. I will get a medal. Hooray for me, I finished the Think Differently Dash!
